The Decision of the Editors

All submitted manuscripts are screened before peer review. The criteria for withdrawing an article include general questions of quality and academic focus. However, if the editors feel that a paper cannot be accepted in its current form but can be revised as a work of publishable quality, they may offer the author the opportunity to revise it. Contributors of rejected papers are given reasons for the rejection.

Title of Paper

Contributors should consider the title of the paper and its impact on discoverability by other scholars.

Figures

Authors are required to provide the highest quality figures. They should combine related figures into a multi-part format that tells a complete.

Manuscripts Submission Guidelines

The manuscript should not exceed 6,000 words in length, including notes and references. It should be double-spaced, excluding references and figure captions; quotations exceeding three lines should be single-spaced in an indented format. Page numbering should be consecutive throughout the manuscript.

The manuscript should be submitted including tables and figures as a single file in MS Word document file format. It should be prepared in Times New Roman, Font size 12 for the main body and 10 points for the footnotes on A4 paper size.

References should be listed alphabetically at the end of the paper. They should be cross-referenced in the text by using the author's last name and publication date. APA style of referencing 7th Edition and above is acceptable. The paper must be written in British English or American English.

The title page should contain the paper title, all authors' names and affiliations, a short abstract of 150 to 250 words, name and institutional email address of the corresponding author. All manuscripts are sent to wajghana2080@gmail.com. All authors are required to submit original papers that have not been published elsewhere by another journal or another publishing body.
